

PENSACOLA
BUSINESS
JOURNAL

May 2004

Younger generation making an impact on region's future

Pensacola Bay Area blessed with up-and-coming leaders, talent

FORTY
UNDER 40

Kenneth "Sonny" Granger III DEVELOPMENT

- ◆ Age: 31.
- ◆ Job: President of Granger Development Inc.
- ◆ Hometown: Pensacola.
- ◆ Community involvement: Northwest Chapter of the Florida Coastal Conservation Association, former president; organized a kids' fishing clinic through the Conservation Association; National Association of Industrial and Office Properties, former board member; currently developing the first residential condominium in downtown Tallahassee.
- ◆ From someone who knows: "Over the last five years, Sonny Granger has steadily built a strong reputation within the local real estate industry. For his honesty, integrity and ambition, we feel Mr. Granger will make an ideal candidate to represent Pensacola as one of its most promising and enterprising leaders." — The Granger Team, consisting of Granger Development's top four employees
- ◆ Favorite book: "Man's Search For Meaning" by Victor Frankl.
- ◆ CD that you play over and over: Anything by the band Coldplay.
- ◆ Person you admire most in this community: Attorney M.J. Menge, a long-time community and civic activist.

